Council Discusses Extending Lines to Include Hogg Addition.

SNYDERTOWN MAY COME IN

Measure Likely to Pass at Next Regular Meeting-Special Session to Be Held to Consider State Board of Health Sewer System Matter.

It is probable that an ordinar will pass at the next session of the Town Council, providing for extending the Borough lines to include 66 acres of land, popularly known as the Hogg Addition. The first step in this direction was taken at a meeting of the Town Council last night when a pe-tition was presented by the residents of that district. Perough Engineer J. 3). Hogg was present with a plot and pointed out the proposed lines of the Borough. An effort will be made to have the residents of Snydertown join to the perition by the time of the next meeting, and there is every likelibood that it will be passed. Although it will cost the taxpayers at least onedents of Connellsville they are all willing, one of the most attractive features the public schools. At many the most attractive features the public schools. expand of the petitioners are now of the most exciting nights ever exceeding their children to school in perionced in the Moser home in Cedar town and are paying $2 per month for avenue early y-sterday morning. it. These prospective residents are also looking to light and police proens, who endorsed a note now in the Citizens National Bank for the laying of a sewer on Vino street between Oaridson and Newmyer avenues. The ing figure was seen the sejal-darkness, total cost of the sewer was $769.40. The shot was fired and with a broather. Murrie made an appeal in behalf less silence the little group walled to of fairness that the Borough take the sewer from off the taxpayors hands. An unfortunate part of the agreement is the fact that it is not dated and made a break for liberty and was sucdoes not boar the corporate scal of the Borough, and legally it is not considered binding. The men who paid the for the sewer have pall the interest upon the note for three years. Mr. Murrie stated that if Attorney Brown Atterward an examination was made were living be would remember the action yery charly, but as it was the above the place where the head of the remember and control that for foregonate her before and love the place where the head of the treatment and control the foregonate her before and love the place where the head of the restance and control the foregonate her before and head some the place where the head of the restance and control the foregonate her before and when it had been fired the male members were ready to do battle upon the head some the place when it had been fired the male members were ready to do battle upon the foregonate with the foregonate when it had been fired the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the same than the foregonate when it had been fired the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the male members were ready to do battle upon the notice of the notice signers and only that agreement, but the sewer had been laid in accord-fluttened itself against the coment. A nace with every instruction of the pair of shoes and gloves were the only urticles missed from the house.

The Street Committee was instructed to investigate the grade on North Sittsburg, the Borough Engineer callng attention to the proposed grade of the payement along the building. He stated that at the corner of Pittsburg and Main streets the pavement would be three inches lower than it should be while at the corner of Orchard alley and Pittsburg street he though it entirely too high. In this connection it was suggested that Mr. Foust forming. November 12, for the purpose of views on the sewage system, ascertaining what it would cost and discussing it generally; to endeavor to re-organize the volunteer Fire Department and to pass finally upon the disposi-tion of the Vine street sower. President Friel appointed P. J. Bren-

a busy one for Selwyn It at first he had had anv dread of enforced lidle ness that worry at least vanished before the first snow flew, for there came to him a secret communication from the govern ment suggesting, among other things, that he report three times a week at the proving grounds on Sandy Hook that experiments with chaosite as a bussting charge might begin as soon as he was ready with his argon primer This meant work—hard, constant patient work But it did not mean money to help him support the beavy burdens he had assumed. If there were to be any returns all that part of it lay in the future and the future could not help bim now Yet, unless still heavier burdens were laid upon him he could had on for the present. His bedroom cost him hext to nothing breakfast he cooked for himself, luncheon he dispensed with and he dired at random-any where that appeared to promise secusion cheapness and immunity from anybody he had ever known

As for his clubs he hung on to them, knowing the importance of appearances in a town which is made up of them But this expense was all he could carry for the demands of the es tablishment at Edgewater were stendly increasing with the early coming of winter. He was sent for oftener, and a physician was now in practically continual attendance

Also three times a week he boarded the Sandy Hook bont returning al-ways at night because he dared not remain at the reservation lest an imperative telegram from Edgewater find him unable to respond So when in November the first few hurrying snowankes whirled in among the city's canyons of masonry and fron, Selwyn had already systematized his winter schedule, and when Nina opened her house, returning from Len ox with Elleen to do so, she found that Selwyn had made his own arrange-ments for the winter and that, accord ing to the programme neither she nor anybody else was likely to see him oftener than one evening in a week

To Boots she complained bitterly having had visions of Selwyn and Gerald as permanent fixtures of family support during the senson now immi cannot understand" she said "why Philip is acting this way He need not work like that There is no necessity because he has a comforta ble income If he is determined to where, of course I won't insist on his for what I said Mrs. I am sorty of the Ahl when Boots ind could his coming to us as he ought to but to abundon us in this manner makes me almost indignant. Anty Drudge's Idea of Clubs:

Organizer of Woman's Club-"Anty, we want you to join our club for the study of scenelogy, economics and the general uplifting of womankind "

Anty Drudge-' All right, my dear. We'll begin by telling all women about the new way of washing clothes! with Fels-Naptha in cold or lukewarm water. It does away with boiling and hard-rubbing, saves work, time, worry and money, and does more to help women! than all the sociology and economics in creation."

When women first began to wash; clothes, they soaked them in a stream and beat them with a paddle. A hard iob it was then to get rid of dirt.

Then someone found that fat and lye made a substance which, mixed with hot water and rubbed hard, cleaned things pretty well. This was soap.

Finally, came Fels-Naptha.

Fels-Naptha isn't simply good soap; it's different altogether from soap as you' know it.

Fels-Naptha marks as big an advance over soap in its usual meaning, as ordinary soap itself did over the paddle.

Ordinary soap calls for much hardrubbing and plenty of boiling water to take away dirt. Some kinds of stains, greases and blood it simply won't remove.

But Fels-Naptha cleans without hardrubbing and you don't use hot water at all.

With Fels-Naptha all you need is gool or lukewarm water. Think how this cuts all the terror out of washday. Full directions printed on the red and green wrapper.
